

Workshop for Medieval Greek Paleography

September 13 to 16, 2021

Mainz, Germany

Number of Participants: Max. 10 (external), 5 (internal)

Instructors:

Dr. Tinatin Chronz

Daria Coşcodan, M.A.

Dr. Olivier Delouis

Dr. habil. Kirill A. Maksimovič

PD Dr. Sergei Mariev

Univ.-Prof. Dr. Johannes Pahlitzsch

Preliminary Schedule:

Day One (Sept. 13): Medieval Greek Paleography
(Mariev)

Day Two (Sept. 14): Creating an Edition (Mariev)

Day Three (Sept. 15): Working with Archival Documents (Delouis)

Day Four (Sept. 16): Manuscripts in Other Eastern Christian Traditions:

Church Slavonic Paleography: A Historical Overview on the Basis of Legal Texts (Maksimovič)

Paleographic Aspects of Romanian-Slavonic
Medieval Manuscripts (Coşcodan)

Medieval Georgian Paleography. An Introduction:
Biblical and Liturgical Manuscripts (Chronz)

Arabic Paleography (Pahlitzsch)

Summary:

Early career scholars (both at the pre- and post-doc phase) are invited to attend this week-long workshop dedicated to medieval Greek paleography. While the main emphasis of the workshop will be on working with manuscripts written in medieval Greek and creating editions from those manuscripts, the fourth day of the workshop will include a series of introductory seminars for studying manuscripts written in other languages of the Eastern Christian tradition, namely Arabic, Church Slavonic and Georgian.

Participation in the workshop is by application only.
Participants must have proficiency in ancient or medieval Greek at an intermediate level or higher. Previous knowledge of Greek paleography is not a prerequisite.

Interested participants whose applications are accepted will be provided with accommodation for the duration of the workshop and will have their travel costs (up to 300 EUR) reimbursed. There is no course fee.

Please send your application consisting of:

1. A cover letter explaining why you would like to participate in the workshop (max. 1 page).
2. A short c.v.

by July 15, 2021 to mamems@uni-mainz.de. Within three weeks of this deadline you will be informed whether a slot is available for you in the workshop.

Please direct any inquiries to the e-mail address above.

A note on COVID-19: it is hoped that the workshop can take place in person. Should circumstances not allow this, then the workshop will be postponed.

The workshop is financed by the ERC Starting Grant MAMEMS “Mount Athos in Medieval Eastern Mediterranean Society: Contextualizing the History of a Monastic Republic (ca. 850-1550)”.